

Prevalence of Breast Cancer in Canada in 2024

XXXX — YYY@mail.mcgill.ca

February 9, 2024

Abstract

Breast cancer is the most common cancer in females all over the world with approximately one million new cases each year as well as one of the second leading causes of death among females. In Canada, ...

1 Introduction

Breast cancer has reached the prevalence rate of in Canada.

2 Datasets

The breast cancer dataset is a collection of

3 Results

Our first experiment shows that... Note that the significance is relatively low compared to... We did a second experiment to validate our previous results on a different population.

4 Discussion and Conclusion

Our conclusion is that breast cancer is mainly caused by

5 Statement of Contributions

XXXX and Sapphire contributed equally to both the coding and PAPER writing.

References